PAYMENT DUE NOTICE

Our records show that you owe the New York City Department of Consumer and Worker Protection (DCWP) fine(s) and/or fee(s) listed below.

Summons/Certificate of Inspection Number	Record ID	Amount Owed
220204HR	11529-2022-ADJC	$1,125.00

DCWP must receive payment within 30 days of the date of the Decision ordering the fine or, if you settled the matter by Consent Order or Settlement Agreement, by the due date listed on that document.

If you were ordered to pay restitution to a consumer or worker you must either: (1) pay the consumer or worker directly and provide proof of payment to DCWP, or (2) if directed to do so by a Consent Order or Settlement Agreement, pay the restitution directly to DCWP. Acceptable proof of payment is a copy of a cancelled check or money order accompanied by proof of mailing/delivery.

If DCWP does not receive full payment by the due date and/or proof of payment if you owed restitution, DCA will suspend or revoke active license(s).<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Please Note: due to a law passed by City Council in 2016, your license may remain suspended, or be suspended or revoked, if DCWP is notified that you owe penalties to any other City agency imposed by the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings. If your license is suspended due to balances owed to other agencies, you will be required to pay the amount owed or provide proof that you have entered into a payment arrangement before DCWP will lift such suspension.
